THE CHRISTIAN CLASSIC · ANNOTATED EDITION

Find God in the kitchen. Pray without ceasing. Live in His presence.

In a busy seventeenth-century Paris monastery kitchen, a lay brother called Lawrence discovered a way of prayer so simple that anyone can begin it today: turning the heart to God, again and again, in the middle of ordinary work.

This beautifully designed annotated edition presents the complete conversations and letters in the classic translation and adds what today's reader needs: an introduction to Brother Lawrence and his world, a plain-language note and a small practice for every conversation and letter, and a guided 30-day practice.

- All four conversations and fifteen letters
- A plain-language note on every chapter
- A small practice and a key line for every chapter
- A guided 30-day practice with space to write
- A Quick Finder, a glossary and an afterword

"There is not in the world a kind of life more sweet and delightful than that of a continual conversation with God."
