THE CLASSIC OF NEW THOUGHT · ANNOTATED EDITION

Mind is the master. Thought builds character. Change your thinking.

"A man is literally what he thinks." With these words James Allen, a self-taught English writer, gave the modern world one of its most quoted little books. Its sequel, Out from the Heart, turns the idea into daily discipline: how to watch the mind, form good habits and grow in character.

This beautifully designed annotated edition brings both classics together in one volume and adds what today's reader needs: an introduction to Allen's life and ideas, a plain-language note and a small practice after every chapter, and a guided 30-day practice.

- As a Man Thinketh and Out from the Heart, complete
- A plain-language note on every chapter
- A small practice and a key thought for every chapter
- A guided 30-day practice with space to write
- A Quick Finder, a glossary and an afterword

"Dreams are the seedlings of realities."
